

Rotherley Construction Inc.

Rotherley Construction Inc. was formed in 1989 by the present President/CEO Allan Evelyn and in 1991 was incorporated under The Companies Act of Barbados into a private, limited liability company. The company's phenomenal expansion and success, has been fuelled by the high quality of workmanship which is underpinned by the company's motto, Quality, No Compromise.

At Rotherley Construction our people are our assets and we work extremely hard at maintaining a dedicated and committed team who all share the same motto. Quality, No Compromise.

Rotherley Construction Inc. undertakes to recruit and retain a diverse workforce through a sound recruitment policy which provides equal opportunity to all. All our employees are oriented so that they understand and share the work practices and high performance standards which are key to the company's success.

Rotherley Construction Inc. has matured and upgraded its in house personnel over the years and now boasts a cadre of more qualified engineers and quantity surveyors employed full-time than any other building contractor on the island.

If you are an Engineer, and

- Interested in being a part of this Team
- A dedicated and committed individual
- Interested in an opportunity to relocate to Barbados
- Interested in Construction Management\Project Management

Send your application to quality@rotherley.com

Quality, no compromise.